How is our Café different from others?

- Coaching, teaching and training to become the best in the industry
- Concerns are handled in a constructive and timely manner.
- We discourage drama and encourage positive energy with open and honest communication.
- “We are guys and gals serving ladies and gentlemen” We encourage the use of “of my pleasure and friend(s)” in our interactions with each other and guests.
- We will push you to follow systems and processes correctly as well as other Team Members. These skills will benefit you in the future as well.
- We use an equal point based disciplinary system that eliminates favoritism.
- We really want you to pursue your dreams and goals.

“Creating opportunities for you to grow, succeed, professionally, personally and financially.”

We take guest experience VERY seriously. If you are not applying to serve and make others smile, or to consistently sacrifice for those we serve (team members & guests) then we kindly discourage you to look for a job somewhere else!

We cannot stress enough that this is not solely an internally social job. We encourage team members to have fun and have great relationships at work, but also to create wonderful positive interactions with guests.

We want to make the team member's experience enjoyable. We aren't perfect, but our goal is to find a balance between a guest experience and a team member experience. You are always valued at FUNKY COW!
